NOISY CROWD EXPECTED AT UNION TODAY

Rooters Preparing for Game With Queens.

PEPPY YELLS

Prizes Still Offered for New Yells and Parodies

What do you think of the new ROOTERS' YELLS that have been appearing in the Daily? Hard to judge without hearing them isn't it? That's Bert Tremaine's idea anyway, and they will all be tried out to-night in the Union at 5.15. The song parodies will get their turn at the following meeting when the band will be out in force under Lloyd Stephen.

The offer of a prize of two reserved seats at the Queens game still holds good. There are two prizes offered—one for the best yell, one for the best parody on a popular song. The decision will not be made for several days yet so there is plenty of time to send in anything you have or to work up a peppy idea. Contributions may be dropped in the daily box at the Union.

It is suggested that songs and yells sent in should not contain knocks for the other team, but should be straightforward appeals to our own men to plunge in and win.

McGill men get only two chances in a season to support their senior football team at home. The first of them comes next Saturday, and it's up to the gang to snap into the new stuff so there won't be any fading away of voices at the Stadium. It's a good chance for the Freshmen to get acquainted with the old standbys too. "Nuts" Nuting and Tremaine will be on hand prepared to outdo themselves. So it's a straight tip to secure throat pastilles.

Queen's have piled up some rather large scores already this season, and the Red and White will want support from the stands.

Time and again it has been demonstrated that organized rooting has been the determining factor in a closely contested rugby game. Saturday's game is sure to be a tight one and every leather lunged son of McGill is needed to cheer on the team. The organization of the Rooters' club is alright—there are capable fellows of the "live-wire" type in charge of that and all that remains for the fans to do is to turn out to-night and learn how to put pep and action into the various new songs and yells. Practice makes perfect and the few days left before the game should be put to good use by all those who want the Red and White to win on Saturday.

The band is going strong but it sure takes lots of lung to distribute music over the Stadium or to lead a parade of a thousand vociferous Rooters, so anyone who can play a wind instrument may join up—is urged to do so in fact.

A GOOD TURNOUT FOR WATER POLO

Swimmers Training Hard at Y.M.C.A. Tank

Judging from the material on hand at Saturday's practice, McGill's prospects of again carrying off the water polo championship this year seem to be very good. While some of last season's regulars are not out this year, there are enough of the old guard left to form the best part of a very strong team. Some of the Freshmen candidates look very promising, and are fast ripening into expert players under the guiding hand of Coach Vernot. With such men as George ernot, Laidley, Ross and Anson as a beginning, it will not be difficult to find enough new material to fill in with. Of last year's Intermediates, Brown, Munro, Forsyth and Vickerson are again on hand, and with a little more hard practice look good for places on the Senior squad. Of the new men, Kyle, Phipps, and Moore look especially promising, while Potter is doing some good work in goals.

There are at least four places to fill on the Intermediates, and also room for a few good men on the Seniors. However, no one has a claim on any of the positions, and any good man has a chance to make either of the teams if he will only turn out to the practices, and show his wares. Practices are to be held in future on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Saturdays at 5.15 p.m. at Central Y.M.C.A. bath. Every swimmer in college is urged to turn out and try for the team.

LIVELY DISCUSSION

Plans Formed for Coming Session

In spite of extremely bad weather, which continued all day, a party of about forty delegates from the McGill S.C.A. journeyed to St. Annes for a conference held under the auspices of the sister organization at Macdonald College. The object of the gathering was to provide a common starting point for the year's activities around Strathcona Hall, and to discuss further some of the issues that had been raised during the recent conference held at Elgin House, Muskoka.

Leaving Windsor Station at 9.20, the party which was accommodated in a special coach reached St. Annes early in the morning, and the conference was convened for the morning session at 10.30 in the Central building of Macdonald College.

The discussion was opened by Miss Dorothy Cross, who in a few well-chosen words gave the meeting some idea of what the Muskoka Conference had meant to her. Perhaps its greatest significance, she said, was in the number of questions which the study groups there had made more pressing. Solutions had not been given at the recent conference. Questions had been raised, and it was in future student work at McGill and outside that solutions were to be sought. Jim Ross also contributed some remarks upon the influence of the work at Elgin House, after which the discussion became general, everyone feeling free to speak without any barriers of formality or custom. Questions of the widest import in the domain of religious and ethical thought were broached, and a great variety of views were expressed.

DR. SCLATER WILL ADDRESS STUDENTS

A complete schedule will be announced shortly, and rooters are asked to keep their dates open for the water polo games and turn out to help the team to victory.

FROSH WON FROM SOPHS ON SATURDAY

Good Showing of Freshmen in Track Meet.

CLOSE FINISHES.

Inclement Weather Does Not Debar Carrying Out of Sports

In the first opportunity offered them as a class to show their wares, the Freshman class came across big on Saturday afternoon by defeating the Sophomores in the annual Freshman-Sophomore track meet. The Sophs had the larger entry but their spirits were evidently dampened by weather conditions, as several did not make an appearance, while others were driven to permanent cover by a small shower about the middle of the afternoon.

In each event there was good competition and although no records were made or broken, due, no doubt, to track conditions, the times in a few events were quite good. The performance of Patterson of First Year was outstanding, inasmuch as he took first place in the 100 and 220-yard dashes, and the running broad jump, and also ran as fourth man in the Relay Race, which the Freshmen won with ease. Code, another First Year man, showed promise in the Pole Vault, which he won without being greatly extended at the height of 9 feet 6 inches. With proper training these two men should soon develop into championship calibre and their work is encouraging for the future. The weight events were not as keenly contested as they might have been, due to the non-arrival of the Sophomore's star husky.

The result was in doubt up till the last event, which was won by the Freshies, bringing the final standing 621-2 points to 591-2 in their favor. This is the first year since the fall of '18 that the Freshmen have been capable of defeating the Sophs, and therefore much credit is due them. In that year such stars as Hay, Kennedy and Hamilton performed at McGill for the first time and since then have been continually heard from. As two of these mainstays of the track team are making their last performance on the track in the interests of McGill at the coming Collegiate meet, it is to the present First Year class that we look to fill their places.

The winners of the individual events were:

Meeting Will be Open to the Public

The youngest society of the University will hold its opening meeting for the session on Wednesday, October 18th. The feature of this inaugural meeting of the Psychological Society will be a paper by Dr. W. D. It has been decided to hold the regular meeting of the Society on the third Wednesday of each month and an attractive program has been arranged by the executive. Prof. Dawson, Mr. W. C. Quayle, Mr. Otto Klineberg and others who have made extensive studies in particular fields of the science of psychology are expected to give papers. Open discussion will follow the speaker on each occasion. As the October meeting is the first general meeting of the Society, this will be open to the public and a short business meeting of the members will follow the open meeting.

MONTREAL, MONDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1922.

A SUGGESTION.

Students have, or ought to have, a definite purpose in their future which they hope to achieve with greater facility, or in greater fullness, because of the devotion of a number of years to the gaining of a college education. Not many lose touch with this ultimate aim; but each has his own method of retaining contact with his future. Some few scholars hope to achieve their ultimate object by strict adherence to studious pursuits; however, most university men have certain goals which they expect to reach at college, certain deeds which they expect to accomplish along the way.

It is not our intention here to enter into a minute comparison of the relative merits of these two means of acquiring an education: by striving solely for a degree, or by entering into campus activity with the idea of supplementing one's purely academic searching after knowledge with the experience one might gather by contact with fellow-students on the athletic field or by active participation in the social and administrative opportunities open to undergraduates. Both systems are essentially selfish; it is a matter of personal preference whether we enter into student life or remain closeted with our books, by either method one endeavours to bring about a result that will benefit himself to the greatest extent. The essential difference is that while the "book worm" gives nothing to the university other than the honour he may add to its name after he graduates, the man who takes an interest in the affairs of his Alma Mater, as evidenced by his active part therein, though satisfying his selfish desires, at the same time gives to his colleagues the advantage of an ability he may have in an athletic or administrative capacity. Accordingly, it would appear not inopportune at this period in the session to recommend to every frequenter of these halls of learning that, if he can conscientiously do so, he enter into some branch of student effort with the immediate objective of aiding himself and of aiding Old McGill in some degree, humble though it may be. We would all be leaders in our chosen sphere at first attempt; but we would remember that what is worth essaying, is worth perseverance.

LOOKING AHEAD.

The attention of the student body is directed to the financial statement the first part of which is appearing in another column of this issue. This is a summary of the finances of the Students' Society for the year ending July the first last, and as such is of the utmost importance to every undergraduate of the university. The society which is making the report is the student's own society, administered in his interests, and by men elected by him. Moreover the money with which it is concerned is the student's own, in the spending of which he is vitally concerned. The statements now published by the Students' Society are thus worthy of close scrutiny. They are put forward preliminary to an open meeting of the Students' Society which is to be held on Wednesday, October the eighteenth at which the finances of the past year will be discussed.

Every one who is in the least interested in the administration of the funds of the undergraduate society of which all are members is now given an opportunity to become thoroughly familiar with the subject matter of the Secretary's report that will be presented at that meeting. The advantage of availing oneself of this opportunity is obvious. The significance of a complicated array of figures cannot be understood by merely hearing them read hastily and perhaps half inaudibly. Time is needed to grasp the why and wherefore of things; and to comprehend the ways and means of the financial transactions which have paid the expenses of the undergraduate body during the past year. Students will perhaps want to question some of the expenditures outlined in this statement, others may find it in the key to some financial problems of the present session. In any case a close study of the figures given is a necessary preparation for an intelligent comprehension of the discussion of student affairs that will take place at the forthcoming meeting of the Student Society.

Read the statement carefully now. Look ahead. It pays.

THE GAME.

McGill suffered defeat over the week-end at the hands of "Varsity" in the first inter-collegiate rugby match of the season. As was predicted in these columns some few days ago, our team, though defeated, left no stain upon the record of the gridiron achievements of Old McGill. The university was watching the progress of the contest on bulletin boards, hearing announcements of the various plays over the telegraph wire, and from these few figures and facts could see that the Red and White representatives were fighting every inch of the way. Statistics show that, though the score was against us, the play was not always so. McGill has no alibis to offer. Toronto earned her victory. Our congratulations go out to the winners, but our confidence remains in the ability of the losers to reverse the "dope" when the same teams meet in the Percival Molson Memorial Stadium on the twenty-first of this month.

NOTICES

Complaints have been reaching the Students Council that the rushing and threats to rush are interfering seriously with not only classes, but all college activities. For this reason, so that every undergraduate can settle down to his studies earnestly, and without fear of interruption, the Council have decided to declare that after Monday evening there shall be no more rushing. In the past rushing has always ended with the University sports, but since there is no holiday on that day, and it is impossible to hold one big rush and get it over, and since it is not fair to freshmen that they should have to give up their evenings from study, to start a year in an unsettled state is bad enough, even for men of upper years, but is much worse for freshmen. Therefore all sophomores are to take notice that no more rushing is to take place after Monday—and on Monday there must not be any disturbance to the freshmen which will in any way prevent them from attending their classes. Freshmen on the other hand, are required to wear their freshmen hats until Nov. 6th, or until such time the Council sees fit to cancel them.

QUEENS SHOW GREAT FORM ON SATURDAY

Seniors Swamp Hamilton With 25-1 Score

BATSTONE OUT

McKelvey and Harding Both Down With Injuries

The Queen's Senior rugby squad earned a decisive victory over Hamilton Rowing Club in their game on Saturday, when they swamped the oarsmen with a 25 to 1 score. Although weakened by the absence of McKelvey and Harding, two of their best players, they showed a considerable improvement since their practice game with R.M.C. on Wednesday. Harry Batstone, on the half line, played stellar rugby throughout the game and his running and kicking drew the applause of the crowd more than once. The other two backs, Laidley and Campbell (who took Harding's place) showed up well, and swept through for big gains on several occasions. The outside wings, Thomas and Walker, gave a good account of themselves, and the opposing backs were unable to get past them. The snap position was well filled by Lewis, but the rest of the line showed that they were at a loss without McKelvey. Even in the game against the light intermediate R.M.C. team on Wednesday they showed little cohesion, and it was not until the second half of this game that they settled down and were able to make any considerable gains against the light army line. As a matter of fact Reynolds was the only Queens linesman who could get through the opposing line at all. Altogether the Queens line put up a very poor performance on Wednesday and allowed Burley of R.M.C. to sweep through for big gains several times. However, after the first quarter they improved slightly, and led by Muirhead, managed to smother the R.M.C. plungers pretty effectively. This game seemed to be of great benefit, and Thursday's light workout, where Coach Awrey pointed out most of their weak points, seemed to set them on their feet, so that Saturday found them in fine form. Indeed after the first quarter, they seemed to get used to the absence of McKelvey, and Johnson, Delahoy and Mundell often went through the Hamilton line for nice gains, while Lewis did some nice work at snaphack position.

The old Queens jinx has been showing his head again, with several men on the hospital list after last week's stiff scrimmage practices. Altogether the Queen's squad has been having a hard time lately. The weather down at Kingston has been almost too warm for football, and the constant fog and humidity has taken a lot of pep out of the players. Some of the best men on the team are down with injuries more or less serious. Red McKelvey is in bed with an infected knee and could not appear against Hamilton on Saturday. Harding, last year's star half back, will be out for at least a week with a sprained ankle. Laylor and Elles, substitute linemen, are both out of commission, with rib injuries. Another lineman, Carson, is also under the weather, while Morris and MacKay, two substitute ends, are forced to rest up, the former with a bad ankle and the latter with a wrenched shoulder. While none of these men were able to show up at the Hamilton game on Saturday, it is hoped that they will be out in a couple of days at least. In the case of Harding, however, considerable doubt is felt as to whether he will be able to play at McGill on the 14th. His condition is causing considerable anxiety, for his loss would be a real blow to Queen's hopes for the Intercollegiate championship.

There is little activity in minor sports at Queen's as yet. Soccer and track sports are not going very strong. The harrier team has started practice runs and the tennis tournament is in full swing. Bud Thomas, who is junior singles champion, should strengthen the tennis team, although he is handicapped by his football. The Intercollegiate Tournament is to be held in Kingston this year and will probably take place on the Rockwood Hospital courts.

U. OF T. SECONDS WIN FIRST GAME

Heavy Varsity Team Defeated Western 14-6

The Toronto Varsity seconds got away to a good start in the first game of their inter-collegiate series by defeating the Western intermediates on Saturday to the tune of 14-6. The Blue and White team were much superior to the Londoners in line plunging and tackling and might have piled up a higher score but for frequent losses of the ball by offside and fumbles. The kicking of Traynor was responsible for all Western's points. The U. of T. line was considerably heavier than that of their opponents which accounted for many long gains. Varsity scored a try and a range before half time and in the second part, were awarded one point for a try, penalized because of the presence of the Toronto coach behind the Western dead line. A touch and a range brought the score to 14. Traynor of Western kicked for two ranges and put over a drop.

The Toronto team: Truax, flying wing; Teagle, Reid, and Cotts, halves; Tufford, quarter; Breithaupt, snap; McGuire and McCully insides; Druce and Snyder, middles; Sproule and Borsook, outsides; Serbie, Eufford and Snyder were the prominent Varsity players.

U. OF T. SOCCER TEAM IS TOURING STATES

The University of Toronto soccer football team, who are at present making an exhibition tour through the eastern states have won the first two games which they have played.

Their first win was over the Crescent Athletic Club team by a score of 7 to 0. U. of T. won this game mainly through superior speed, netting two goals in the first period and holding their opponents scoreless. In their second game they defeated Princeton University in their own stadium by the score of 4 to 1.

MCGILL BOWS TO VARSITY ON MUD COVERED FIELD

Costly Fumbles by McGill Backs Responsible for 20-2 Defeat.—Varsity has Big Advantage in Kicking Department—Philpotts Seriously Injured—Snyder and Hobbs Star for Victors—Philpotts McGill's Gainer.

Battling stubbornly against great odds, and playing under numerous disadvantages the McGill football team, a young and inexperienced outfit, was obliged to give way before the powerful attack of the experienced Varsity team, on the latter's home grounds in Toronto on Saturday. Close to ten thousand people sat through the rain to watch the Blue and White, plough their way through the mud to a 20 to 2 victory over the Red and White.

The score, however, does not indicate very accurately the difference in the strength of the two squads. That there can be no doubt the better team was, but the McGill men on their showing certainly merited a better score. Whatever breaks, there were to the home team's advantage, though it is true that their alertness accounted for their taking advantage of every break.

There were times in the game when the Red and White looked vastly superior to last years champions, particularly in the second and most of the third periods.

A glance at the statistics of the game show that Varsity did not have really so great an advantage in the play as the score would indicate. Toronto gained 210 yards from scrimmage to 156 for McGill. 108 of the winners yards were made in the first quarter, while McGill could gain only 3. During the rest of the game McGill had the decided advantage in this department.

To look at it from another angle, Varsity made 10 first downs to 7 for McGill. Six of the ten came in the first period, while in the next two McGill outplayed their rivals 7 to 4, 123 yards to 102 for Varsity.

Where the winners had the big advantage was on the kicking end. Their punts averaged 43 yards to 35 for the visitors, an advantage of 8 yards, which on 27 punts means a gain of 216 yards or twice the length of the field.

To the inability of the McGill backs to hold on to the wet ball, can be attributed the defeat. Two of the three touchdowns, came as the immediate result of McGill fumbles and the third was indirectly due to the same error. The Blue and White is to be congratulated on the victory. They have as well rounded a backfield as their is in the game. Snyder, Duncan and Patterson are a smooth working half line, while Hobbs and Bartlett at quarter and flying wing have few superiors. Their outsidies are speedy and sure tacklers and the line a strong one. Snyder and Hobbs were the stars on the winning team.

For McGill, Philpotts was by far the best performer. Phil was the only consistent ground gainer on the team and was a tower of strength on the defence. His injury in the last period was a serious blow to the McGill team. It was at first thought that he had fractured several ribs, but later diagnosis seems to indicate that he incurred a serious injury to the kidney. Philpotts is now in Toronto hospital. Flanagan played a hard game and got away on some good gains but failed to pass when to do so might have meant big gains. Flin's kicking was not up to par and Varsity was thus given a big advantage. Carroll played his first game at quarterback, and though he made a few errors in the selection of plays, should improve as the season goes on. Dink got off some good punts.

McGregor played a good game at centre and the left side of the McGill line, Ambridge and Foss was invincible, but it was on the right side that the weakness lay. Gamble and Walsh did not seem to get down low enough and were taken out of a number of plays. The outside wings played a hard game but showed lack of seasoning. Among the new men Foss showed up remarkably well, while Newton, Crain, Freedman and Pierce gave fair first performances.

A detailed account of each play follows:

First Quarter.

Varsity won the toss and elected to defend the east end of the field. There was a continual downfall of rain and very little wind; whatever breeze there was came from the north and across the field. Flanagan kicked off for McGill at 2:30. The kick went out of bounds on the Varsity 10 yard line and the ball was brought back for another kick off. Flanagan played safe and the boot though poor rolled to the 20 yard line where Bartlett was downed. On the first scrimmage Snyder ran through the right side of the McGill line for a gain of 15 yards. Snyder punted to Carroll on the 37 yard line. "Dink" fumbled but recovered. Foss hit centre for one yard and Flanagan punted to the Varsity 42 yard line where Hobbs fumbled and McGill secured the ball. Flanagan went through right middle for three yards, Walsh made two at left, Carroll tried an onside kick which again made first down on a 9 yard plunge through Ambridge. McGill tried the left side again and Little made a yard. Flanagan's kick to Duncan was short and Varsity put the ball in play on their 53 yard line. Flanagan returned Snyder's punt and Philpotts nailed the Toronto star on his 27 yard line. Snyder got off a long punt the oval bouncing over Carroll's head to McGill 23 yard line where Carroll obtained and made 10 yards on a pretty piece of work. Flanagan made eight yards when he dove over a pile of players at centre. A line plunge gained the necessary two. Reilly received a penalty. Philpotts fumbled on a plunge and Campbell who had replaced Ralph at outside recovered for Varsity on the McGill 45 yard line. Walsh stopped Duncan without a gain. Philpotts threw Snyder for a three yard loss on an end run. Snyder dropped the ball but Weber recovered. Snyder was set for a kick on the last down but the McGill line broke through and downed him at mid-field. Flanagan lost five yards when he stepped out of bounds. On the second down he punted to Hobbs on the Varsity 40 yard line. The play was called back and McGill given first down at centre. Flanagan kicking to Hobbs on his 25 yard line, the Varsity quarterback advanced 10 yards and returned to McGill's 43 yard line where Carroll was stopped on end run failed and Flanagan punted to Patterson at the 35 yard line. Flanagan was roughed after the kick and Taylor was sent off for 5 minutes. Flin had to be carried off the field and was replaced by Pierce. Two tries netted Varsity only two yards and Snyder booted to McGill's 25 yard line and Philpotts advanced 5 before he was halted. Carroll kicked to the Varsity 25 yard line, Patterson received and passed to Snyder who made a long sweeping run down the field. Ambridge missed the speedy Toronto halfback and Walsh finally forced him out of bounds at mid-field. Snyder punted to the 25 yard line and Philpotts return went only to mid-field. Snyder made 4 yards between Gamble and Walsh. Patterson hit the same spot for 6 more. when measured the play was inches short of the necessary ten yards. Duncan went through the same side of the line for three yards and first down. Patterson ploughed through for four yards, Snyder fumbled but recovered for a gain of five and Duncan made it first down. Snyder lost 6 yards on an end run, and on the next play kicked from 45 yards out to the goal line where Philpotts was thrown for a rouge. Varsity 2—McGill 1.

Ambridge and Foss opened a hole for Philpotts who made six yards. On a fake play Little made first down. McGregor was sent off for bolding and the ball brought back to the 15 yard line. Mathew went in for Gamble and snapped the ball out. Flanagan returns replacing Pierce. Patterson recovered Snyder's fumble of Flanagan kick to mid-field. Snyder's kick rolled over the line and Flanagan carried it out one yard. Ambridge was injured and replaced by Freedman. Flanagan made 3 through centre, he gained 4 more through the same hole and punted on the next down to Snyder at mid-field. Freedman went down and blocked Snyder's kick as the half ended.

Third Quarter.

Ambridge returned to the game Westman kicked off for Varsity, Philpotts received on the 25 yard line and advanced ten yards before he was stopped, on the first play. Flanagan on a pretty pass from Philpotts skirted left end for 30 yards, bringing the ball to the Varsity 45 yard line. Flin darted through centre for five, Foss made it first down through the right side of the line. A plunged through centre gave the McGill 5 more, Foss added a yard and Flin was forced to kick, the oval bounding behind the dead line. This tied the score at 2 all. At this stage the Red and White team was travelling at top speed and they looked vastly superior to the Varsity twelve. They ripped through their opponents almost at will and in a few minutes carried the ball from their own 25 yard line to Varsity's 30, a distance of 55 yards. Two line plays brought no gain and Snyder kicked Flanagan at mid-field. Snyder was responsible for the prettiest tackle of the game, when he broke up a very promising end run formation, by spilling Flanagan with only a two yard gain. No gain on second down and Flanagan kicked to Varsity's 18 yard line, where Hobbs was dumped without gain. Snyder and Duncan went through for 2 and 8 yards respectively, but fell inches short of first down. On the next play, however, they made the distance with only inches to spare. Walsh broke up the next play and Snyder punted to Carroll on the McGill 35 yard line. Flanagan and Philpotts failed to gain, and Flin's kick was returned into his own hands by Snyder. The ball slipped through Flin's fingers, and was recovered by Taylor. On the next play Varsity scored a well-earned touchdown as the result of the most neatly executed end run of the day. Hobbs skirted left end and when tackled passed to Snyder, who in turn handed the ball to Duncan, who evaded the three McGill men and placed the ball between the bars for the first touchdown against McGill in two years. Hobbs failed to convert. Varsity, 7; McGill, 2.

Flanagan's kick-off was weak, and was picked up on the Varsity 40 yard line. Snyder made 8 yards between Walsh and Gamble. Freedman replaces Gamble, and Somerville goes in for Patterson. Somerville kicked from his own 45 yard line into touch at the McGill 10 yard line. The ball taking a bad bounce over Carroll's head. Philpotts ploughed through Ambridge's side for 5 yards, and Carroll punted to Hobbs at mid-field. Hobbs returned the punt for 55 yards to Carroll, who dropped the ball when tackled by Westman on the goal line. Snyder recovered for a touchdown, and was hurt on the play. It was in this play also that Philpotts received his serious injury, and had to be carried off the field. Pierce replaced him. Duncan failed to convert from a difficult angle. Varsity, 12; McGill, 2.

Flanagan kicked off again. Snyder received on 15 yard line, and advanced 5 yards. Somerville, on the first down, punted to McGill 45 yard line. Flanagan hit right middle for 5, Carroll recovered Foss's fumble, and Flanagan kicked to Varsity 20 yard line, and Somerville returned the punt to the McGill 25 yard line for an advantage of 20 yards on the exchange. Flanagan made 4 yards and punted into touch at mid-field. Duncan uncorked a 33 yard run around left, being brought to earth by Flanagan on the 23 yard line. Varsity penalized 15 yards for offside. Hobbs tried an onside kick, and Snyder throw Carroll on the yard line. Plunges by Flanagan and Foss netted only 3 yards, and Carroll dropped back to kick. The pass from centre sailed over Carroll's head and he was tackled behind the line for a safety. Varsity, 14; McGill, 2.

A plunge at centre gained 2 yards, and Walsh went through for 8, falling inches shy of first down. Gamble added 5 yards and a first down. Flanagan punted to Somerville, who fumbled, and Schwartzman recovered for McGill on the Varsity 35-yard line, as the period ended.

Fourth Quarter.

Gamble and Flanagan failed to gain. Westman broke through and blocked Flanagan's kick at mid-field. Flanagan punted out of bounds on the Varsity 26 yard line. Ambridge was injured and left the field. Somerville punted to McGill's 20 yard line. The Varsity line held on two plinages, and Carroll kicked to the 50 yard line, where Pierce nailed Hobbs. Miles recovered for Varsity when Carroll fumbled on his 5 yard line. Snyder plunges through to the 2 yard line, and Duncan walked through a wide hole on the right side, for a touchdown. The McGill backs claimed a Varsity man was offside, and made no attempt to tackle Duncan, but the objection was overruled. Hobbs failed to convert. Varsity, 19; McGill, 2.

Flanagan kicked off to the 25 yard line, and received the return on Varsity's 45 yard mark. Gamble made 3 yards through Foss, and Pierce added 2 in the same manner. Carroll tried an onside kick, which Varsity recovered on their 15 yard line. Hobbs made 5 yards, but a penalty for offside brought the ball back, and Somerville kicked from his own goal line to Carroll on the 50 yard mark. Flin punted on the first down to Hobbs, and lost 20 yards on the exchange. Two bucks failed to gain more than a yard, and Somerville punted out of bounds on the 37 yard line. Little made 3 yards on a reverse play. On the next down Westman broke through, blocking Flanagan's kick and holding on to the oval he sprinted down the field. The play, however, took place after the referee's whistle had blown, and the ball was brought back. Flanagan punted to the Varsity 45 yard line, and caught the return on his own 15. Foss gained two yards, which Flanagan lost on the second down. Carroll dropped back to kick, three Toronto men broke through, and "Dink" cleverly sidestepped the man got off to a fairly good punt to the 50 yard line. Hobbs returned at once, and the ball rolled over the dead line. Varsity 20; McGill, 2. Line plunges by Gamble and Flanagan failed. McGill lost a chance of working an end run, when Flanagan failed to pass when two halfbacks were uncovered. Flin punted to the Varsity 45 yard chalk line. Somerville's kick was short, and went out at mid-field. Flanagan kicked to Somerville, who advanced 5 yards before he was down the 20 yard line. Two smashes failed, and McGill line broke through and blocked Somerville's kick, gaining possession 20 yards from the Varsity goal. Two plunges advanced the ball 4 yards and Flanagan sent an onside kick over the goal line. Hobbs passed to Snyder, who evaded two tacklers and ran the ball out 25 yards as the final whistle sounded. Score: Varsity, 20; McGill, 2.

B.W. & F. TO HOLD MEETING TUESDAY

Inter-faculty Competitions During Session

A general meeting of the Boxing, Wrestling and Fencing Club will be held in the Music Room of the Union on Tuesday at 5 p.m. Members of the executive are particularly requested to attend and all men interested in these sports are also invited to be there. It is the purpose of this club to hold inter-class and faculty boxing and wrestling competitions during the session. Many good boxers were discovered last year as a result of the inter-class and faculty boxing competitions held last year and these men would do well to continue their training this year.

Only a few of last year's Intercollegiate men are available this year and their places must be filled. Ernie Robinson will again coach the boxers while the veteran instructor Smith will teach the wrestlers.

The meeting on Tuesday will be an important one inasmuch as plans for the coming session will be definitely laid. The executive need your assistance so let's get together on Tuesday at 5 p.m. in the Union.

MCGILL S.C.A. TRAVELLED TO MACDONALD

riety of opinion made itself manifest. Nevertheless some important truths were unearthed and many found a source of inspiration in much that was said.

Lunch was served to the McGill delegation in the main hall of the Central building, after which many availed themselves of the opportunity of seeing something of the college buildings and grounds.

The afternoon was occupied with the formation of plans for the work of the association during the coming session. The desirability of sending a party of delegates to the National Conference in December at Toronto was strongly urged by Mr. Mackay. The ways and means of increasing interest in Bible study groups was also discussed.

The evening service at St. Annes Union church was placed in the hands of the Conference, and the service was conducted by Harry Avison, while Bob Hall was the preacher.

CURIOSITY SHOP MIND.

(University of Washington Daily)
Occasionally one meets a man with a mind like an overstocked curiosity shop, a mind cluttered with countless shabby, dusty facts, a dingy mind unlit by the sunlight of rich human sympathies and common sense that life-contrasts yield. Such a man can perhaps tell you Alabama's cotton production for 1897, or maybe the middle name of Buchanan's minister to Denmark, although if he is that good he is doubtless in vaudeville. More likely his feats are less spectacular, and he is a laundry driver or a clerk.

He will never succeed, except possibly at vaudeville, because he lacks intelligence to distinguish between facts, and between facts and principles. On a lesser scale, he has prototypes at Washington.

Books are fitter custodians of most facts than the mind. Many touchstone facts may be learned, truly, but time and retentive power conspire to limit the number of facts the average person can make his own. Most facts should be left to rest on library shelves, there subject to resort, not lugged about.

Principles, the trees of which facts are leaves, are far fewer, and worthier of seeking and retaining. One principle leads to a million facts, a million facts to a single principle. In so far as a student masters and remembers principles, and builds his own thought on them, he is a thinker, not a human encyclopedia. His learning is adaptable, not mechanical.

SIMPLICITY.

At Charing Cross in London, facing the Strand, stands the statue of a woman, with only this simple inscription, "Dawn, May 15, 1915."

No passerby needs be told that this statue with its simple inscription is the figure of Edith Cavell.

One of the unmistakable ear marks of education is simplicity. Simplicity somehow breathes greatness, wins confidence. A blustering, bluffing manner in man or woman hides nothing from the piercing eye of the man who knows.

The work of a benefactor of humanity needs no long epitaph—no flaring advertisement. The world knows and reveres.

The work of a meagre man, well and fairly done, however simple, is the basis of his own happiness.

The work of a good student, whatever his variant interests, needs no prior to get its scholastic, athletic—whatnot—reward, will make the basis of his later happiness, will commend him when he meets the world.

The man who has the goods, who passes the test, who leaves an indelible imprint on us is, after all a simple unostentatious human who is doing his work.

First co-ed, "You look like Helen White."

Second ditto, "I know it, but I look better in brown."

DAILY STAFF TO MEET WEDNESDAY

New Men to be Instructed in Their Work

A meeting of the entire Daily staff will be held in the Daily office, basement of the McGill Union, on Wednesday, October 11th at 7.30 p.m. Two meetings of the staff are generally held yearly—the first early in the fall, which gives the new men an idea of the nature of the work required of them, and the second, held a short time before college closes, at which promotions for the following year are generally announced. This first meeting also gives the men on the staff a chance of getting acquainted with each other.

Later on in the year it is expected that the Daily staff will be addressed by men well known in journalistic circles, who will speak on some phase of newspaper work. At the present meeting, however, the new reporters will be instructed in the rudiments of their work on the Daily, and this is the main purpose of bringing the whole staff together at this time.

A CRUEL ONE:

Sir Gerald Du Maurier recently stated that the famous gag of all mediocre comedians—the mia-in-law joke—had its origin away in the dim stone age. It appears, he said, that Mr. Caveman was gnawing at a bear-bone in his cave, when Mrs. C. rushed in, crying, "Quick, quick! Get your club! Sabre-toothed tiger chasing mother!" Mr. C. shrugged his shoulders. "And what do I care," he asked, "what happens to a sabre-toothed tiger?"—London Sunday Express.

"The duchess has a glass eye."
"How do you know?"
"I was talking with her the other evening and it came out in the course of the conversation."—Lampoon.

THE "GRADE" STUDENT.

"Gee, I wish I hadn't gone to that class."

"Why not?"

"Why the instructor didn't call the roll. I'd just as well not gone."

This is an actual conversation overheard on the campus the other day. And it isn't unusual. You've probably heard it, many times.

What is at the bottom of such a conversation, such a spirit as is therein portrayed. Consider what must be a student's ideals, his ambitions, who would regret attending a class just because the instructor failed to call roll and thereby create a record of the fact that the student was present at the class—physically?

Yet such a spirit is all too common on our campus. Almost is valent. Never for a minute does student consider that he had cheated himself when he misses a class—his whole thought is that he has a "cut," and that that "cut" will count against him on his "grade." He is primarily the "grade" student, the one to whom the mark that is given him at the end of the semester is a goal in itself, not a mere estimate of the work he has put into a course of study, and the value he has gotten out of it.

These are the students that constitute the dead wood of the University. Their ideals, their ambitions, their worth to the University, all alike—are "not."

Father (to son)—Why, young man, you couldn't even dress her.

Son—Zatsol! It won't take me long to learn.
